

1st Module

(3 marks)

1. Explain the key features of Python programming language.
 2. Discuss different data types in Python along with their uses.
 3. Explain the structure of and, if, if-else, and if-elif-else along with their functionalities.
 4. Explain the use of break and continue statements in Python loops.
-

(5 marks)

1. Write a Python program and explain its working procedure.
2. Explain the features and advantages of Python.
3. Describe the differentiate selection/decision operators in Python and describe their uses.
4. Explain the applications of for and while loops in Python and relate them to real-life situations.
5. Explain the use of break, continue, and pass statements and represent their rules in loop control.